Citations* for the Nomination (Shall not exceeding 250 words based on the FAI By-Laws 7.2.1) *Will be uploaded to FAI Database and presented at fai.org		Presented in recognition of his exceptional and enduring contributions to the sport of aerobatics as an elite pilot, master coach and dedicated servant to the international aerobatics' community. Throughout his career, Pierre Varloteaux has personified the precision, discipline, and passion that define the highest levels of aviation. As a highly accomplished competitive pilot, he demonstrated a profound mastery of the skies, translating his firsthand expertise into a commitment to the advancement of aerobatic flight. Beyond his individual achievements in the cockpit, Pierre has left a permanent mark on the sport through his masterful coaching. He has selflessly guided, mentored, and inspired generations of pilots, instilling in them not only the technical skills required for world-class precision but also a deep, unwavering commitment to flight safety. His visionary leadership as a coach has directly shaped the trajectories of numerous competitors, elevating the standard of performance on both national and international stages. As an active and influential member of the Commission Internationale de Voltige Aérienne (CIVA), Pierre's contribution reached through his exemplary service as the Alternate Delegate of France, several years as the Chairman of the CIVA judging committee and over the years several positions in the International Jury and Judge. In these critical roles, he worked tirelessly to uphold the absolute integrity of the sport. His visionary leadership in establishing rigorous judging standards, refining regulations, and mentoring international judges ensured fair play and transparency at the highest echelons of global competition. For his outstanding merit, his profound impact on the international aerobatic community, and his lifelong dedication to the pursuit of aviation excellence, Pierre Varloteaux is hereby nominated for the prestigious Léon Biancotto Diploma.
