

These texts are Creeds to be read out at the opening ceremony of CIVA World and European / Continental Aerobatic Championships by a selected pilot and the senior CIVA official.

Pilots Creed

On behalf of the great international group of pilots assembled here to compete in this 29th FAI World Aerobatic Championship I solemnly declare that we shall at all times act in a truly sportsmanlike manner, and throughout the event we shall apply the very highest standard of ethical behaviour in the air and on the ground to maintain the fine tradition established over many years by the FAI International Aerobatic Commission we all know as CIVA.

CIVA Officials Creed

On behalf of the CIVA International Panel of Judges, the FAI International Jury and other CIVA nominated officials assembled here for this 29th FAI World Aerobatic Championship in South Africa I solemnly declare that we shall act in a truly impartial and equitable manner in all matters throughout this event and apply CIVA Regulations accurately and without favour regardless of the identity of the aircraft or the competitor.
